

To better visualize the newsletter, we recommend enabling the option to download images and include this address in your safe senders list.

Mesoamerica Program Newsletter

March 2017

34 Young University Students Discuss on Migration in Southern Mexico

The University of the Isthmus in Ixtapetec campus was the setting for the workshop "Migration and Youth", aimed at 34 students of the Faculty of Law of the Department of Constitutional Studies. Read More

Highlights

Psychosocial Care Tools

IOM Provides Psychosocial Care Tools to Migrants' Caregivers

Based on the premise that, without emotional health, it is not possible to provide adequate care to migrants, the Mesoamerica

In the first quarter of the year, 41 judicial officials completed successfully the virtual course Criminal Prosecution of trafficking in persons, in alliance with the Judicial the Authority in Costa Rica.

Soon

Program organized a Regional Workshop focused on the psychosocial care, and care of the personnel that serves migrants in Mesoamerica. Read More

Rebuilding the Confidence of Migrant Adolescents

With the aim of animating the days of hundreds of migrant teenagers in the "Viva México" Temporary Shelter for Migrant Minors, IOM, through its Mesoamerican program, has set out to promote a recreational and training program that will bring back some joy and emotional relief. Read More

Key Actions to Protect and Assist Migrants in Vulnerability

This note published in the Movement Blog summarizes the main strategies developed by the Mesoamerica Program to protect and assist migrants in vulnerable conditions in the region. See the full article here (only in Spanish).

The community festivals of the InformArte en Movimiento campaign will take off in next April. Follow us to get more information.

Cross-border Diploma.
Citizenship, Migration and Human Rights.
Tapachula, Mexico

E-Learning Platform

Copyright © 2017 International Organization for Migration, All rights reserved.