

Course Catalogue

November 2019

Index

Uptaded Course

Migration Governance and Trends

Course on Migration Management Best Practices — Belize	4
Global Context of Migration and Migration Flows in Latin America	5
Human Rights in International Migration and International Refugee Law.....	6
Coordinated Migration Management at Border	7
Migration Governance in the Caribbean	8

Migrant Protection

Differentiated Identification and Protection Mechanisms.....	9
Refugees and Asylum Seekers	10
Unaccompanied and / or Separated Children and Adolescents.....	11
Migration and Youth	12
Specialized Course on Migrant Children in the Americas.....	13
Reintegration Handbook Online Course.....	14

New Course

Labour Migration and Development

Introduction to the International Recruitment Integrity System.....	15
Labor Migration Management in Latin America.....	16

Migration Crisis and Emergencies

Course Including Migrants in Emergency Management.....	17
Course Improving Assistance to Nationals Affected by Crises Abroad	18

Trafficking in Persons

Trafficking in Persons: Protection and Assistance to Victims	19
Strengthening the Capacities of the Judiciary in Trafficking in Persons with an Integral Human Rights and Gender Perspective in Mexico.....	20
Capacity Building for Federal Labor Inspectors for Detection and Protection of Victims of Trafficking in Persons — Mexico	21
Strengthening Capacities to Detect, Assist and Protect Victims of Trafficking in Persons in Mexico, addressed to Government Officials and Civil Society	22
Trafficking in Persons. Course for Health Providers	23
Counter Trafficking in Persons for Consulates, Ministries and Secretariats of Foreign Affairs	24
Criminal Prosecution of the Crime of Trafficking in Persons.....	25

Specialized Course on Trafficking in Persons.....	26
---	----

Migration Health

Psychosocial Support for Migrants.....	27
--	----

Gender and Migration

Women and Migration	28
Migration and LGBTI Populations.....	29

Partners	30
----------------	----

Contact.....	31
--------------	----

Course on Migration Management Best Practices — Belize

The course contributes to the development of procedures and policies and foster the implementation of best practices to improve migration management, with the aim of promoting the development of a comprehensive National Policy on Migration and Development in Belize.

Learning modality:
Bi modal (tutored virtual course and face to face)

Availability:
Available during the implementation of the face to face course

Duration: 1 week

Language: English

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Belize

Click on the cover to access the course.

Global Context of Migration and Migration Flows in Latin America

This introductory module provides basic knowledge about the characteristics and trends of international migration and facilitates a general understanding of migration dynamics in Latin America, providing an introduction to the reality of the different migrant populations.

-  Learning modality: Self-learning
-  Availability: Available online all year
-  Duration: Approximately 3 hours
-  Language: Spanish
-  Cost: Free
-  Geographical Coverage: Latin America

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Human Rights in International Migration and International Refugee Law

-  Learning modality: Self-learning
-  Availability: Available online all year
-  Duration: Approximately 3 hours
-  Language: Spanish
-  Cost: Free
-  Geographical Coverage: Latin America

Through the contents and activities of this module the participants can analyze and apply the legal tools of International Human Rights Law (IHRL), Migration Law and International Refugee Law (IRL) with a perspective of assistance and protection, with a special focus on migrants and refugees in conditions of greater vulnerability.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Coordinated Migration Management at Border

This course introduces models of migration and border management in order to facilitate migrants' regular pathways for migration.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Facilitated virtual course

Availability: From October 25th to December 09th 2019.

Duration: 5 weeks

Language: Spanish

Cost: $3000 USD

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

Migration Governance in the Caribbean

The objective of this course is to improve the understanding of what constitutes migration governance and to provide an overview of the main migration trends in the Caribbean region. This course also explores the status of migration governance in the Caribbean through a review of the actions being undertaken by the States to implement well-managed migration policies.

Learning modality: Self-paced learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: English

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Island States of the Commonwealth Caribbean

Click on the cover to access the course.

Differentiated Identification and Protection Mechanisms

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

This course offers conceptual and practical tools for identifying vulnerability profiles of migrants. It seeks to strengthen knowledge to understand how the procedures for assisting vulnerable migrants and the corresponding referral mechanisms should be carried out.

Click on the cover to access the course.

Refugees and Asylum Seekers

This module presents the particular situation of asylum seekers and refugees, their presence in migratory flows and their specific protection needs. It also describes the profiles that characterize the different groups in need of international protection for their proper identification and referral to assistance services.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Unaccompanied and / or Separated Children and Adolescents

This course introduces the situation of unaccompanied minors, separated from their families and with other special conditions of vulnerability, in order to foster the implementation of appropriate and relevant actions for their identification in migratory flows and for their protection and assistance.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Migration and Youth

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

The module on Migration and Youth seeks to contribute to a better understanding of the reality of this population and to improve its protection and assistance by government institutions and civil society organizations from a human rights approach sensitive to gender and diversity. It also promotes discussion and participation of young people, as subjects of rights, and the development of strategies for the defense and promotion of their rights.

Click on the cover to access the course.

Specialized Course on Migrant Children in the Americas

This course provides specialized knowledge about migrant children in the Americas. It is aimed at specialists in the areas of migration and childhood and aims to deepen the core content for the comprehensive and correct approach to the realities, regulations and protection mechanisms associated with migrant children throughout the Latin America.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Course available on demand; course aimed to specialists.

Duration: Approximately 80 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

Reintegration Handbook Online Course

Learning modality: Self-paced learning

Availability: Available all year round

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: English

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Global

This online course, based on the Reintegration Handbook, aims at providing a foundational learning experience covering the various levels (individual, community and structural) and dimensions (economic, social and psychosocial) affecting reintegration. The curriculum consists of 5 modules :

1. Introduction to the Integrated Approach to Reintegration
2. Reintegration assistance at the individual level
3. Reintegration assistance at the community level
4. Reintegration assistance at the structural level
5. Monitoring & Evaluation of reintegration assistance

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Introduction to the International Recruitment Integrity System

This course provides participants with an overview of the International Recruitment Integrity System (IRIS). This includes information on what ethical recruitment looks like in practice and what labour recruiters need to demonstrate in their management systems to be IRIS certified. While this course has been designed primarily for labour recruiters, it is relevant for anyone seeking more information on IRIS.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available all year

Duration: Approximately 1 hour

Language: English and Spanish

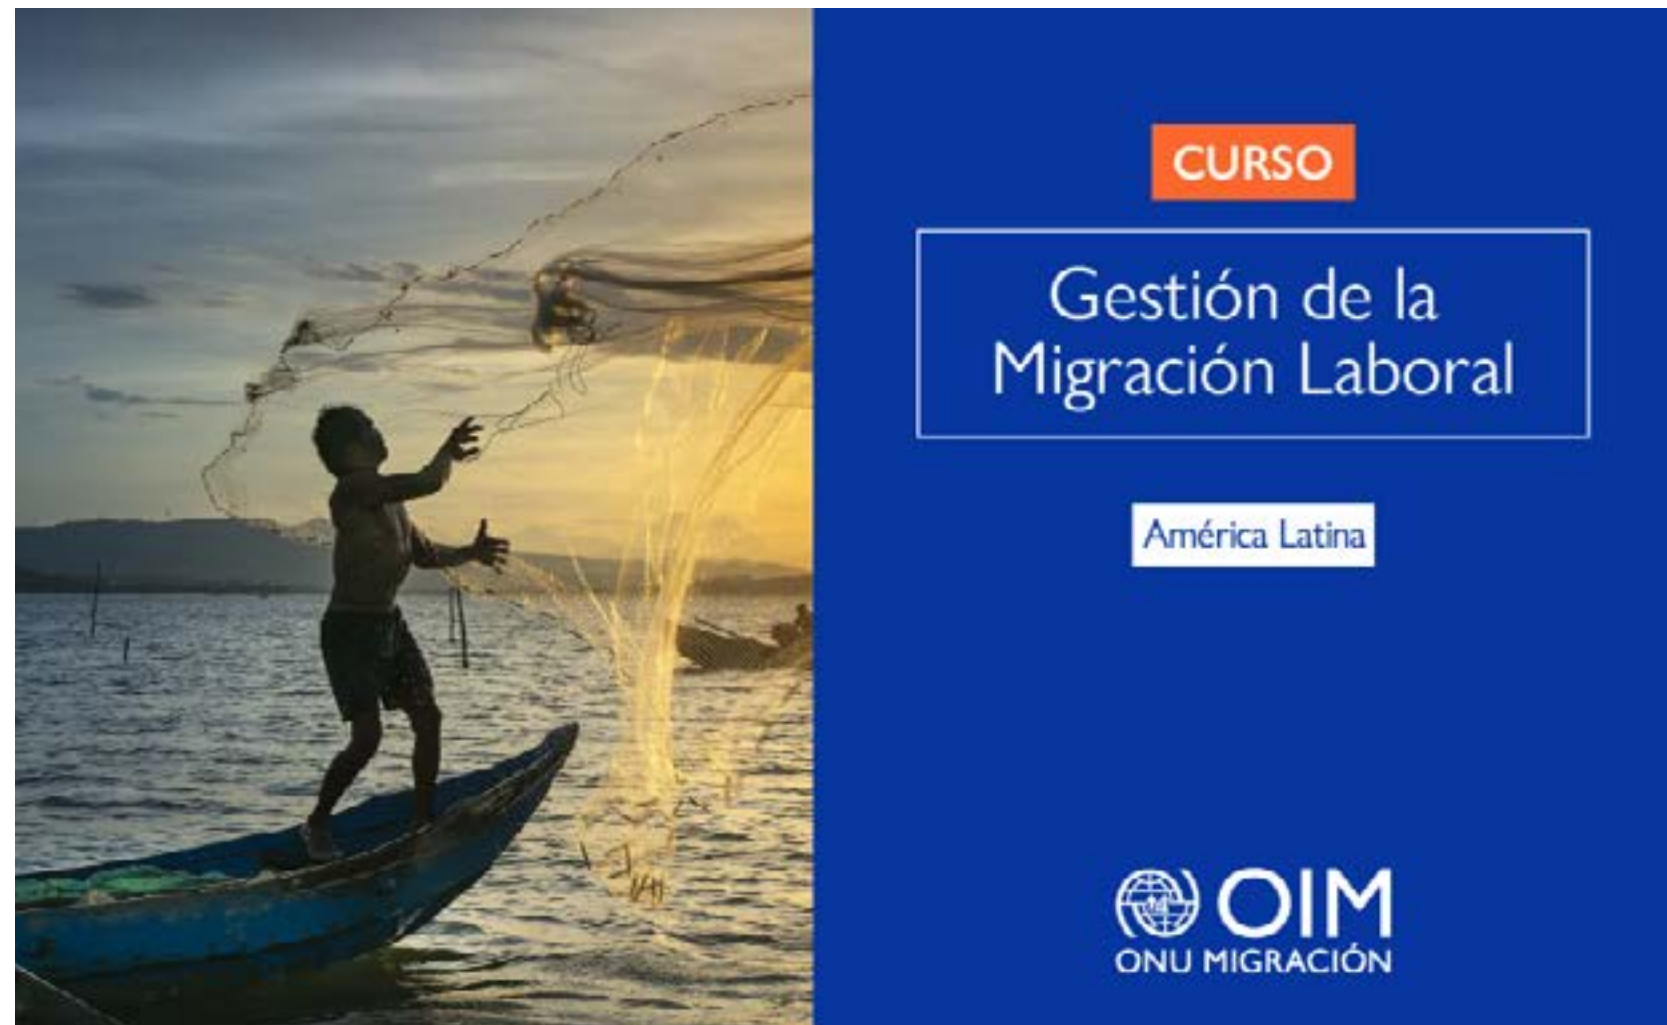

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Global

Labor Migration Management in Latin America

This course provides the necessary knowledge for a better management of labor migration in the region, particularly on the protection of migrant workers. It also presents circular, temporary and border migration, the development of strategies for the labor market, among other topics. Labor migration is presented in an integral way, as a political, economic and social phenomenon.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

Course Including Migrants in Emergency Management

This course provides emergency management practitioners information and tools to provide services in a more inclusive manner, accounting for migrants’ specific behaviors and preferences.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: English, Spanish and Italian

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Global

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Course Improving Assistance to Nationals Affected by Crises Abroad

-  Learning modality: Self-learning
-  Availability: Available all year
-  Duration: Approximately 5 hours
-  Language: English, Spanish, French, and Arabic
-  Cost: Free
-  Geographical Coverage: Global

This self-learning course will allow you to gain necessary knowledge on the main conditions that define the vulnerabilities of citizens abroad during crisis situations. This course is meant for the staff of institutions in charge of assisting citizens abroad.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Trafficking in Persons: Protection and Assistance to Victims

This course addresses the definition of human trafficking and its features, as well as the difference between it and migrant smuggling and other related crimes. It also reviews the history of this crime and explains why it is important to consider the various profiles of people who are involved in migration processes.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-paced

Availability: Available all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: English and Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Global

Strengthening the Capacities of the Judiciary System in Trafficking in Persons with an Integral Human Rights and Gender Perspective in Mexico

The course contributes to the improvement in the resolution of cases of trafficking in persons addressed by the judiciary, by reviewing the concepts related to this phenomenon and the regulatory frameworks designed to both prevent and protect the victims of this crime. It also offers contextual elements that allow a better understanding of trafficking considering its multicausality and multifactoriality.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 2 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Mexico

Trafficking in Persons

Click on the icon to return the index.

Capacity Building for Federal Labor Inspectors for Detection and Protection of Victims of Trafficking in Persons — Mexico.

The course offers a review of the concepts related to trafficking in persons and of the normative frameworks for the protection of human rights linked to this theme. It also provides tools for labor inspectors to facilitate the detection and protection of victims during their visits to work centers, integrating the gender perspective and the intersectional approach.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 2 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Mexico

Strengthening Capacities to Detect, Assist and Protect Victims of Trafficking in Persons in Mexico, Addressed to Government Officials and Civil Society

The course provides tools to government officials and civil society agents to facilitate the detection, assistance and protection of victims and potential victims of human trafficking. It presents concepts related to the phenomenon and explores routes of detection, channeling and reintegration of the victims, the criteria of basic assistance and the strengthening of the coordination between assistance and protection systems.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 2 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Mexico

Trafficking in Persons, Course for Health Providers

Professionals in the field of health may have contact with victims and possible victims of the crime of trafficking in persons. For this reason they play an important role in the identification of possible cases and care for victims in clinics, hospitals, health centers, among others. This course aims to improve the capabilities of health professionals through information and practical tools.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: English and Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Global

Trafficking in Persons

Click on the icon to return the index.

Counter Trafficking in Persons for Consulates, Ministries and Secretariats of Foreign Affairs

This course is aimed at the staff of the Consulates, Ministries and Secretariats of Foreign Affairs and presents technical contents regarding the international regulatory framework that binds States and assists victims. The fundamental objective is to analyze the processes of assistance and consular protection and its articulation from these governmental instances.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

Criminal Prosecution of the Crime of Trafficking in Persons

This course focuses on the prosecution of the crime of trafficking in persons. It covers the most important topics to understand this crime, its characteristics, profiles and other information that allow a clearer perspective of it. Emphasis is placed on the legal issues.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Course available on demand

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: Spanish

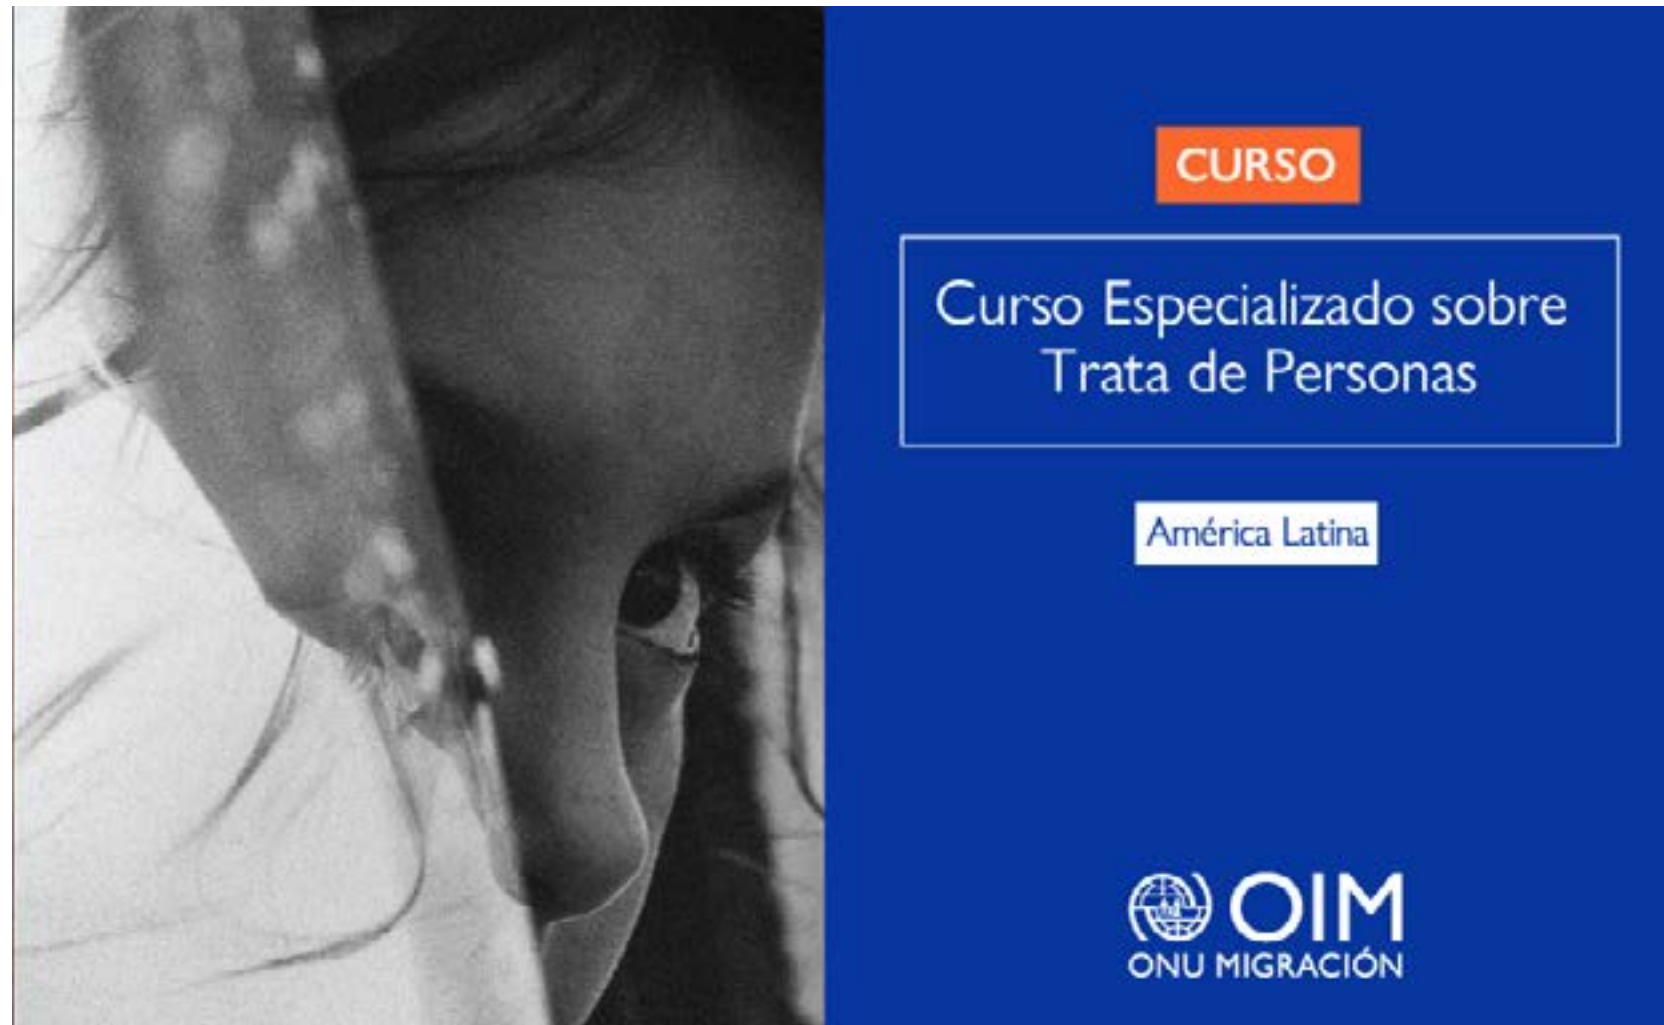

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Specialized Course on Trafficking in Persons

This tutored course seeks to promote discussion and awareness of the issue of trafficking in persons as a serious violation of human rights, its causes, risks and consequences, as well as individual and collective responsibility to combat this crime.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Facilitated

Availability: On demand

Duration: Approximately 10 weeks

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

Psychosocial Support for Migrants

This course provides theoretical and practical tools with the aim of strengthening the skills in providing psychosocial services, focusing on areas that affect the well-being of migrants. It helps students acquire the necessary knowledge about psychosocial care, psychological first aid for migrants and for the staff that supports them. The course provides practical tools to strengthen psychosocial care competencies and to intervene in areas that have the most impact in all stages of migration.

Learning modality: Self-paced

Availability: Available all year

Duration: Approximately 4 hours

Language: English and Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Global

Click on the cover to access the course.

Women and Migration

This module seeks to deepen, knowledge about the situation of migrant women with specific vulnerabilities and about their differentiated assistance and protection needs, with a perspective of human rights.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 3 hours

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

Migration and LGBTI Populations

This course is aimed at government institutions, organizations, civil society groups or people interested in developing training, awareness and strengthening processes around the reality of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans and intersexual (LGBTI) migrant, refugee and asylum seeker populations.

 Click on the cover to access the course.

Learning modality: Self-learning

Availability: Available online all year

Duration: Approximately 4 hours

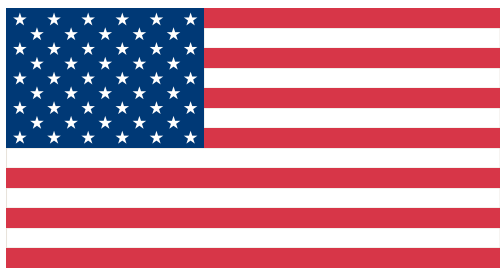

Language: Spanish

Cost: Free

Geographical Coverage: Latin America

Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration

Office to Monitor and Combat
Trafficking in Persons

Department
for International Development

E mail

e-campus@iom.int

Join E-Campus platform at <http://www.ecampus.iom.int>

