

To better visualize the newsletter, we recommend enabling the option to download images and include this address in your safe senders list.

Mesoamerica Program Newsletter

September 2017

OIM launches MigrantApp, the first application for the protection of migrants in Mesoamerica

IOM, the United Nations Agency for Migration, launched MigrantApp, the first pilot of MigApp, a global effort to provide information that facilitates regular, safe and orderly migration. Read More Watch Video

Highlights

Download (Only Spanish)

14 countries share their strategies to fight against trafficking in persons in the tourism industry

Testimonials

Courtney Walsh, Polaris

Soon

Behind the services and attractions that make some touristic destinations famous in the region, situations of trafficking in persons can be concealed. Read More Watch Video

---

IOM supports the exchange of experiences related to migrant children and adolescents in Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador

On the 19th of September Guatemala City hosted representatives from Mexico, El Salvador and Honduras, who jointly with officers from Guatemala, participated in the meeting “Exchange of experiences: practices and standards for the protection of migrant children and adolescents” Read More

---

Cross-border meeting on migration between Mexico and Belize

On the 1st of September, IOM organized for the first time a cross-border meeting in Chetumal, Quintana Roo, attended by the authorities of Chetumal, Quintana Roo (Mexico), and authorities in Belize. Read More

---

Consular Authorities in Nicaragua and Honduras reinforced their skills to assist national living abroad during an emergency

As part of the Mesoamerica Program to Strengthen the Capacities to Protect and Assist Vulnerable Migrants in Mesoamerica, the International Organization for Migration (IOM) implemented in Nicaragua and Honduras two workshops for consular authorities with the objective of strengthening their competencies to protect migrants during emergencies. Read More

---

Migration to the Beat of Reggae

For many, organizing an event that includes public institutions, members of government and international organizations, but also 6 “rastas” might seem wild, and in a way it is, but at the same time it is this craziness that made this activity an unusual challenge.

Read More Watch Video

---

Information Service of the IOM Mesoamerica Program. With the support of the International Migration Office of the Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration

Copyright © 2017 International Organization for Migration, All rights reserved.